

For The Record

■ The A-League will field 18 teams in 2002 — a reduction of two from the 2001 season. Calgary moves up from the PDL, and Hampton Roads returns in place of Nashville. Also gone are Long Island, Connecticut and San Diego. Those cities should all have teams in the D3 Pro League.

■ Champions were crowned across Latin America. Among the winners were Racing (Argentina), Atletico Paranaense (Brazil) and Pachuca (Mexico). Manchester United moved back into the English Premier League race with seven straight wins. Bayer Leverkusen and Borussia were tied for the German lead at the winter break. Real Madrid has come from far back to take the lead in Spain. Roma claimed the lead at the halfway point of the Italian season.
