

MARCH POLL THE NEW U.S.

U.S. national team coach Bruce Arena used the first three games of 2003 to take a look at MLS players. They included holdovers from the 2002 World Cup and players who are getting their first shot at nailing down a starting job. Arena may recall other World Cup veterans and look at more newcomers before the start of 2006 World Cup qualifying. Here's your chance to evaluate players in the national team future. Voting runs through March 15, 2003.

DISAPPOINTMENT

Of the World Cup 2002 veterans used in the first three games in 2003, who was the biggest disappointment? (pick one)

Steve Cherundolo
Landon Donovan
DaMarcus Beasley
Pablo Mastroeni

Clint Mathis
None

PLEASANT SURPRISE

Of the other players who started in the first three games in 2003, who was the most pleasant surprise? (pick one)

Carlos Bocanegra
Dan Califf
Bobby Convey
Nick Garcia
Tim Howard
Chris Klein
Ben Olsen
Sasha Victorine

ANOTHER LOOK ?

Of these MLS veterans of the 2002 World Cup team, who should get another shot? (pick one)

Jeff Agoos
Frankie Hejduk
Cobi Jones
Carlos Llamasa
Brian McBride
Tony Meola
Joe-Max Moore
Eddie Pope
Earnie Stewart
Josh Wolff
None

FIRST SHOT

Of these young prospects, who should Arena give a shot on the senior team? (pick one)

Freddy Adu
Ricardo Clark
Eddie Gaven
Guillermo Gonzalez
Ed Johnson
Santino Quaranta
Jonathan Spector
None

Log on to socceramerica.com and make your picks.