

JULY POLL OPINION SURVEY

The following are the results of socceramerica.com's July poll in which fans responded to an opinion survey on soccer topics in the news.

- The Home Depot Center opening It's just one of many soccer stadiums needed for the sport to prosper (73%)
- It's the best thing that ever happened to American soccer (20%)
- It's an overrated story (2%)
- No opinion (6%)
- MLS changing of the guard Young American players in Project-40 have injected some much needed excitement into MLS (72%)
- MLS needs experienced

- goalscorers from abroad to give it credibility (22%)
- No Opinion (6%)
- Women's World Cup returns I'll be following the Women's World Cup closely (49%)
- I might catch a few U.S. games (37%)
- I couldn't care less about women's soccer (11%)
- No opinion (3%)

MLS Wrap

- MLS Wrap is the best thing that

- ever happened to MLS on TV (31%)
- Highlights are great but production values are lacking (30%)
- I don't get Fox Sports World, so it doesn't do me any good (29%)
- No opinion (10%)

AUGUST POLL MLS ROOKIES

Rookies have taken on major roles in MLS this season, what with the cutback in the number of foreign acquisitions and the absence of national team players for much of June and July. This month, we ask you for your opinion on MLS rookies: the best and the brightest (future), the surprise and the bust. Who do you like? MetroStars ironman Ricardo Clark? Teammate Mike Magee? Steady Logan Pause at Chicago? San Jose back Todd Dunivant? Walk-on Nat Borchers at Colorado? You have until August 15, 2003, to make your selections.

Log on to socceramerica.com and make your picks.