DOGS AND THEIR OWNERS.

Results of the Adoption of Rule 2—More Descriptions From the Sinking A. K. C.—Mr. Cugle Corrected—Philadelphia's Position, Etc.

What a struggle there is to get ashore from that rotten old bull, the A. K. C., which is stranded on Regulation and Rule 2.

Mr. Mason will have quite a lot of judging to do at the Boston show, and Mr. Lever is down for nearly all the terrier classes except fox terriers.

Now let us take an account of stock. The shows announced for 1888 are Columbus, O., Atlanta, Augusta, Utica, New York, Philadelphia, New Haven, Boston and Fox Terrier Club.

Mr. Cugle in his letter to Turf, Field and Farm, says:—(The Stud Book is the means by which the bills of the A. K. C. are paid.)

Mr. Cugle's letter to Forest and Stream shows that his memory is defective, or else my information is incorrect. I do know that the following is correct, however.

As to the clubs that will hold shows this year, there is Hartford, Providence, New Jersey, Esbjerg (last year's debts not paid) and it is reported in note going the rounds of the press.

The feeling in this city is mixed, for with the club secretary as president of the A. K. C. there is a certain esprit de corps in sticking to the last. It is commendable, of course, but the Philadelphia Club has had a bitter experience of paying the fiddler in years past and wants to run a show that will pay or none at all.

Mr. W. K. Taunton, of England, has been engaged by the mastiff clique clubs to judge at New York. The W. K. C. managers seem to like being led by some people. The Fox Terrier Club has also got their selection appointed.

The Spaniel Club committee met in New York on Tuesday evening and drew up their classifications for adoption at shows, and any show accepting one of them, together with one of the club's list of judges, will receive $25 for classification No. 1, $15 for classification No. 2 and $10 for classification No. 3.

THE INTERNATIONAL FIGHTS.

Kilrain Gets His Cash—Another Challenge from Sullivan—A Proposed Match for Dempsey, Etc.

Referee Atkinson, on the 24th, called R. K. Fox, Kilrain's backer, as to what disposition should be made of Kilrain's share of the stakes.

Jack Dempsey says of the proposed match with "Toff" Wall:—"After I get through with Dominick McCaffrey I will take a trip to England to fight for the middle-weight championship of the world.

Smith and Kilrain have apparently mutually agreed to ignore Sullivan's challenge with a view to making money while they can.

At Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 24, an eight-round fight between the light-weights Harry Gilmore, of Montreal, and John H. Clark, of Philadelphia, for a stake of $250 a side and the dog receipts took place.

Sullivan and Mitchell will fight, if they fight at all, in March, 1888.

Jack Dempsey has a poor opinion of Mitchell, and considers Sullivan the greatest fighter alive.

At Springfield, Ill., Dec. 25, Frank J. Hogan, an amateur middle weight of that city, and John Daly of Pittsburgh, fought 53 rounds with bare knuckles for $600 a side.

At St. Louis, Dec. 30, Leslie Murphy and Frank Nell, two light-weights, fought four rounds.

The Beverly Yacht Club, of Boston, is the first to announce dates for next season's races. They are:—July 4, Monument Regatta; first day: championship July 14, Marblehead, first open sweepstakes; July 21, Monument Beach, second open sweepstakes; July 28, Monument Beach, third open sweepstakes; August 4, Monument Beach, fourth open sweepstakes; August 11, Monument Beach, fifth open race; September 1, Marblehead, sixth open race; September 15, Monument Beach, seventh open race; September 22, Monument Beach, eighth open race.
