ATHLETIC.

A GREAT SUCCESS.

The First Supplementary Championship Meeting of the Amateur Union.

The first supplementary indoor championship meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union was held in Madison Square Garden, New York, on the night of Nov. 21. About seven thousand admission tickets were sold and there were present as spectators League directors and some members of the New York Base Ball Club; the members of the Schuylkill Navy, of Philadelphia; Otto Ruhl, the secretary of the New York Athletic Club; Herman Oelrichs, Joseph J. O'Donohue, Mayor-elect Grant and Erastus Wiman. Among the college and regiment clubs which competed were:—New York, Chicago, Columbia, of Washington; Detroit, Pastime, Staten Island, Olympic, Orange, American, Schuylkill Navy, Berkeley and New Jersey athletic clubs, the Seventh, Twelfth and Twenty-second regiments of New York City; the Twenty-third, of Brooklyn; Columbia, Princeton, Williams, Harvard and Yale colleges and the Manhattan Club. In putting the 24lb shot, Geo. R. Gray, New York Athletic Club, covered the distance of 32ft. 6⅝in. in the competition, beating the world's record of 27ft. 11in., which had stood for twelve years. Then in an exhibition put, immediately following, he reached the remarkable distance of 83ft. 9½in., the announcement of which was received with tremendous applause. Then M. O. Sullivan, of the Pastime Athletic Club, threw the 56lb weight into the air 13ft. 11⅝in., which beat his own throw of 13ft. 9in., made Oct. 2, 1886, which stood for the record. In the standing high jump, S. Crook, of the Manhattan Athletic Club, succeeded in reaching 4ft. 11¼in., beating the English record by 1¼in., though it is 1⅞in. less than the American mark. Return:

MORE RECORD BREAKING.

Queckberner, the New York Giant, Alters More Hammer-Throwing Figures.

New York, Nov. 18.—Another effort to break the several amateur records for heavy hammer throwing was made yesterday afternoon by C. A. J. Queckberner, of the Staten Island Athletic Club, on the grounds of the organization, at West New Brighton, S. I. He essayed the feat in six events, in each of which he made six trial throws from a circle. In two events he eclipsed the records by which, on Wednesday afternoon, he surpassed all previous records. In a third instance he excelled a record held by himself, which he failed to break Wednesday afternoon. In another case he established a record, and in the remaining events he failed, a broken handle contributing to his defeat in one, the record for which he, however, holds. As in his previous attempt, he was considerably handicapped by the insecure footing which the spongy turf afforded. Messrs. R. K. Pitchard, Frederick W. Janssen, Edward W. Gould, Jr., and Edward Hicks officially judged his work. The result of his efforts is summarized as follows:

Twelve-pound hammer, 3ft. 6in. handle; record, 114ft. 3¾in., by C. A. J. Queckberner—Record surpassed; best trial, 116ft. 4in.

Twelve-pound hammer, 4ft. handle; record 124ft. 11in.—Failed to beat record; best trial, 123ft.

Sixteen-pound hammer, 3ft. 6in. handle; record, 99ft. 7in., by C. A. J. Queckberner, Nov. 14, 1888—Record beaten several times; best trial, 100ft. 8in.

Twenty-one-pound hammer, 3ft. 6in. handle; record, 81ft. 3in., by C. A. J. Queckberner, Nov. 14, 1888—Failed to break record, as handle of hammer broke.

Twenty-one-pound hammer, 4ft. handle; record 79ft. 9½in., established Nov. 14, 1888, by C. A. J. Queckberner—Record eclipsed; best trial, 82ft. 3½in.

Twenty-one-pound hammer, thrown with a turn from a 7ft. circle—Record established; best trial, 90ft. 8in.

Mr. Queckberner now holds five of the seven records for which he essayed his feats.

Pointers.

The resignation of the Missouri Amateur Athletic Club from the N. A. A. A., has been accepted.

The Athletic Club, of the Schuylkill Navy, expects to get into its new quarters, Nos. 1626 and 1628 Arch street, by next June.

George Mason, the English pedestrian, arrived from Liverpool Monday. He was accompanied by Archie Sinclair, the champion English walker, and an unknown.

Joe Scott, the champion pedestrian of Australia, now in England, intends to visit this country before returning home. He sails from Liverpool for New York the first week in December.

A 100yds. running race between Gent, the Australian, and Crawford, Kittleman's protege, upon which a considerable amount was staked, came off at Hudson, Wis., Nov. 17, Crawford winning.

The following officers have been elected by the New Jersey Athletic Club:—President, M. J. Newman, of Bayonne; vice president, A. C. Stevous; secretary, A. M. Sweet; trustees, C. E. Annett and M. V. E. Stringham.

Matsada Sorakichi, "The Jap," attempted to throw Harvey Parker five times in an hour, catch-as-catch-can, at the Opera House, Erie, Pa., on the evening of Nov 14. He failed, getting only one fall. The gate receipts were at issue.

Peter Priddy and William McClelland have been matched to run a two and a seven and a half mile foot race for $250 a side in each race. Both will take place at the grounds of the Pittsburg Cycling and Athletic Club, the first on Dec. 1 and the second on Dec. 8.

Sam Moore, champion of England at 136 pounds, and Edward Bibby wrestled at Fall River, Mass., Nov. 17, at the skating rink, Lancashire style, two out of three, for $250 a side. There were 500 spectators present. Bibby won the first fall in 19 minutes; Moore won second and third in 13 minutes and 18 minutes respectively.

Charles Edward Boardly, the noted colored sprinter of America, died at West Chester, Pa., November 20, of consumption, aged 25 years. Some few years ago he won a purse of $2,500 at Oressona, Pa., by half a yard. His record was better than ten seconds for 100 yards. He traveled considerably in the East and West, and gave exhibitions of sprinting before large audiences. He contracted a severe cold about one year ago which ... developed into consumption.

An exciting wrestling contest took place at Evansville, Ind., November 17, between James Morgan, a wrestler of note in the West, and the over-rated athlete, Marvine Thompson, which was won, to the surprise of every one present, by Morgan. The match was catch-as-catch-can, best two out of three falls. Morgan, who is a much smaller man than Thompson, won the match in the first two falls, the first being in 40 seconds and the second in 6 minutes 45 seconds.

George Doyle, of Marlborough, and Edward Decker, of Swahton, Vt., met in prime condition for their wrestling match at Marlborough Nov. 16. The match was the best two in three falls, Ed James' rules, for $50 a side. The wrestlers struggled forty minutes in true Vermont style, when Doyle, with a trip and a lightning twitch, threw Decker, gaining the first fall. After ten minutes' work in the second bout, Doyle, with a left hand wring, threw Decker again, winning the match.

P. Cannon, the champion runner of Scotland, started to break the four mile record a few days ago on a track at Glasgow, Scotland. A stiff gale of wind was blowing at the time, and the track was not in very good condition, but nevertheless he not only accomplished the task he set out to do, but also beat the three mile record, which was 14m. 36s. Cannon covered the distance in 14m. 34 2-5s. The four mile record was 19m. 36s., made by J. White in 1863. Cannon ran the distance in 19m. 25 2-5s.

The first joint cross-country run of the present season was given at St. Louis, Nov. 11, under the auspices of the Missouri A. A. A. and the Pastime A. C. There were eighteen starters, and as the weather was fine and the traveling fairly good all the way, all enjoyed the brisk exercise in the crisp morning air. The distance run was about six miles and a half, and the first home was William Lawler, of the Pastimes; Wert Thompson, M. A. A., second, and D. L. Cabanne, Pastime, third. Afterwards the customary lunch was partaken of with sharpened appetites, and the remainder of the day was passed in social enjoyment.

Of Interest to Athletes.—The Northampton Sports conspiracy case, which for some time attracted much attention in athletic circles in England, has come to an end, and in a way that will have a tendency to prevent the recurrence of such cases. Burns, alias Hughes, and Keeton, a publican, of Chesterfield, were convicted and sentenced for trying to swindle the Northampton Athletic Club out of a prize at their Bank Holiday meeting. Burns was only a poor lad, who foolishly allowed Keeton to find him board and wages on condition that he ran to order and in whatever name Keeton chose to select for his entry. The fraud was discovered and Keeton will have the pleasure of six months' imprisonment and Burns will enjoy four months with hard labor.

AQUATIC.

ROWING IN AUSTRALIA.

The Rapid Growth of Aquatic Sports in the Antipodes.

Judging from present appearances the world's rowing championship will not be very easily wrested from the Australians. Even now there are a couple of young oarsmen out there either of whom is adjudged likely to lower Kemp's colors before long. The following extract from a letter to Prof. Peter Jackson will convey an idea of what the Kangarooianders think of the rowing situation:—"Searle has challenged Kemp, and Searle's party are willing to back their man for £5,000. Searle is a young fellow about 20 years of age, well built and a good rower. He has rowed three races within the last five months and has licked Wulf, Neilson and Stansbury. In his race with the latter he rowed the course in 19:35, the fastest by long chalks ever done here. The Matterson crowd has him in hand, and in my opinion you can tell your American friends that Kemp will never go over to row Teemer, but probably Searle will, and if he does Teemer must take a back seat. We have another new champion who will lick the world before another year passes. His name is Jim Stansbury, and he is from Shoalhaven. He is 21 years of age, about six feet high and as strong as a lion. Searle beat him in exceptionally fast time, but Stansbury was raw with the sculls, and there was an absence of finish in his rowing. He is coming on now, though, and will astonish the world when he picks up good form."

Ripples.

The London Sportsman is responsible for a statement to the effect that a party of Australian scullers will visit England next season.

Recent advices received from the antipodes state that the sculling race between Chris Neilson and Neil Matterson, in which the latter won, was a most flukey victory, as the water was not favorable for Neilson.

Athletes as a rule are long-lived. An inquiry extending over more than fifty years shows that the men who rowed in the Oxford and Cambridge crews lived on an average longer than the men who did not row.

The Yorkville Yacht Club has elected these officers for 1889:—George Wright, commodore; Wiliam Otto, vice commodore; Robert Ecke, recording secretary; J. B. Dyer, treasurer; H. Rae, sergeant-at-arms; Chis Senne, measurer.

At the annual election for officers of the Nassau Boat Club the following were elected:—President, Chas. Badgley; vice president, Richard O. Morse; secretary, Albert E. Colfax; captain, John H. Abeel, Jr.; lieutenant, Frederick Vilmar.

The annual meeting of the Oswego, N. Y., Yacht Club was held on November 19, the following gentlemen being elected: Commodore, Allen Ames; vice commodore, Switz Conde; secretary, W. B. Phelps, Jr.; treasurer, Elliott Mott; captain, F. W. Sackett; measurer, W. P. Judson.

Peter Jackson, the Australian pugilist, who is matched to fight Joe McAuliffe, of San Francisco, is quite a swimmer. He is to swim fifty yards for $200 a side with E. C. Pingham, champion of California, within two weeks. Jackson's backer is George Harting, a young Australian sporting man.

The Columbia College Boat Club has elected officers as follows:—President, Isaac Seligman, '76; vice president, Eugene Klapp, '89; secretary, J. S. Langhorn, '90; treasurer, Jasper T. Goodwin, '76; board of directors, R. C. Cornell, '74; A. B. Simonds, '73; J. O. Rhinelander, Joseph Lawrence, '86; Guy Richards, '87; H. C. Pelton, '89; C. K. Beekman, '89; Randolph Meiklehem, '90; R. S. Palmar, '91, and J. Fiske, Medical School.

The Dirigo Boat Club of Portland, Me., will be well represented in the regattas next year. It has already been decided to organize a four and eight-oared crew, and to send both to the national regatta, wherever that may be held. There is an abundance of good material in the club, and the crews will be located in the best possible manner, and will have the Davis appliances that utilize power in rowing. A strong bid will be made for the championship of fours and eights.

Dr. W. Seward Webb, of Shelbourne, Vt., has contracted with the Harlan & Hollingsworth Company, of Wilmington, Del., for a steel steam yacht 112ft. long, 18ft. beam and 12¼ft. depth of hold, guaranteed to make 15 miles per hour. One novel feature of her construction will be a false or detachable bow, which can be removed to allow the vessel to go through the locks of the Northern canals. The same expedient to decrease the length of the vessel at the stern will also be used.

Candidates for the University and Freshmen eight-oared crews of the University of Pennsylvania have begun training under Ellis Ward, and the outlook for two first-class crews was never so good as now. All the departments of the institution are turning out a full quota of men, and for the first time it looks as though Pennsylvania would have a thoroughly representative university crew. It is proposed to enter the 'Varsity eight in all the principal regattas, in addition to the annual race with Yale.

The first of a series of annual contests in sculling and four-oared rowing for the amateur championships of Victoria took place just before the departure of the last Australian mail. The course was on the river at Melbourne and the distance as nearly as possible three miles and a quarter, more than twice the length of amateur races on this continent. Four scullers started: Gilbert, of Corid Bay; Fogarty, of Yarra Yarra; Ainley, of Yarra Yarra, and Fitzgerald, of Williamstown. Fitzgerald led all the way and won by six lengths from Ainley in 22:35, the others about three-quarters of a mile behind. The Wendouree four, of Ballarat, won the next race easily in 19:32, beating the Banks, Corid Bay, Yarra Yarra and Melbourne crews. All the fours rowed with coxswains, a style unknown in America except in gigs. The winners averaged 170 pounds.

THE TRIGGER.

Dr. W. D. Carver, a physician, and father of Dr. W. F. Carver, the noted crack shot, died at New Orleans November 7.

Captain Brewer and C. W. Budd are quite likely to meet soon in a 100 live bird contest for something like $1,000 a side.

John L. Brewer, of Philadelphia, and L. S. Carter, of Hammond, Ill., are quarreling over the wing shooting championship. Each claims it and Brewer has issued a challenge for $500 a side, 100 birds, London Club rules, Thanksgiving Day, at Pittsburg.

The Manhattan Shooting Club has elected the following officers:—Captain, Henry W. Meyer; first lieutenant, Henry J. Monsees; recording and corresponding secretary, William D. Garbade; financial secretary, George Welbrock; treasurer, William A. Lappe; shooting master, Henry W. Lappe; assistant shooting master, Henry C. Kruse; ensign, Henry H. Flottmann; sergeant at arms, J. D. Monsees.

A new style of gun wad is making a stir in England. It comes from Sweden and is made of paper pulp. Sportsmen who in youth loaded their shotguns with scraps of newspaper will not be prejudiced in favor of the wads in advance, but the new wad is nevertheless a great success. It is made cup-shaped, the hollow being placed in the cartridge next to the powder. It follows that the powder gases press the edge of this cup against the barrel and so keep themselves from mingling with the shot. Extended experiments show an increased number of shot placed within the standard 30-inch circle, an improved spread of the shot and an increased penetration. The recoil of the gun was naturally increased at the same time. It is pretty plain from these trials that the ordinary gun wads, even when they fit the barrel snugly and are a half-inch thick, do not wholly prevent the gases from mingling with and so scattering the shot.

FOOT BALL.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Harvard Beaten by Princeton—A Victory for Yale.

Harvard and Princeton met at Princeton Nov. 17, and the latter won by 18 to 6. A great crowd was present. Friends of Harvard were confident of victory, while those of Princeton were hopeful. That Harvard should not score until the last three minutes of the game, even the wildest Princeton enthusiast would not have predicted. This, however, proved the fact. The game was interesting and exciting throughout. But Harvard could not score. At last Harvard made a supreme effort to escape absolute defeat. Twice the ball was kicked over Princeton's line by a long punt from Sears, but each time Mowry saved Princeton a safety touch-down. At last, partly by good kicking and rushing, the ball was forced down near Princeton's line, and Porter carried it across and scored the first touch-down for Harvard. A goal was picked from it, making the score 18 to 6, where it remained, as only three minutes were left before the game had to be called. The teams were:

Harvard—Rushers, Harding, Davis, Trafford, Cranston, Carpenter, Woodman and Cumnock; quarter back, Eggleston; half backs, Lee and Porter; full back, Sears.

Princeton—Rushers, Bovaird, Cook, Janeway, George, Irvine, Cowan and Riggs; quarter back, R. Hodge; half back, Maury and Black; full back, Ames.

Referee, W. C. Camp, of Yale. Umpires, Corbin and Richards, of Yale.

A YALE VICTORY.

At New Haven, Nov. 17, Yale beat Wesleyan easily. The team and individual play of the Yale foot ball men was without question the finest exhibition of the sport ever seen in New Haven, and resulted in Wesleyan's crushing defeat by 105 points to nothing. Yale's team work was a great feature. The rushers got through in good shape, followed the ball closely, and blocked and interfered in the most scientific manner. The individual features were the remarkable runs of Gill, Heffelfinger, Wurtemberg, Wallace and McClung, the fine end work of Stagg and Wallace, and the goal kicking of Bull. Gill broke through Wesleyan's rushers and made one run of fully 90 yards and several of 50 yards, dodging the whole team. Heffelfinger, Wurtemberg, Wallace and McClung repeatedly dodged through the Wesleyans for 30-yard and 40-yard runs. Bull kicked side goals, and rescued one long run from the field. The Wesleyan team played a much stronger game than usual, but they were no match for Yale. The teams were:

Yale—Stagg, Hartwell, Woodruff, Heffelfinger, Gill and Wallace, rushers; Newell, centre; Wurtemberg, quarter back; McBride, half back; McClung, half back; Bull, full back.

Wesleyan—Crane, Johnson, Eaton, Heath, Glenn and Foy, rushers; Gardner, centre; Eggleston, quarter back; Hall, half back; McDonald, half back; Slayback, full back.

Referee—Langdon. Umpire—H. E. Peabody.

HARVARD BEATS PENNSYLVANIA.

At Philadelphia, Nov. 19, Harvard beat Pennsylvania 48 to 0. The game was played in the midst of a heavy rain and the players waded through puddles ankle deep. By the end of the game both teams were so muddy that the players could scarcely be distinguished from one another. The 400 spectators warmed up their blood by cheering the unfortunate player who happened to take a mud bath in his fall instead of striking the green sod. Harvard excelled at all points and won the game on merit. The teams were:

Harvard—Rushers, Cumnock, Woodman, Longstreth, Cranston, Trafford, Davis and Lerosky; quarter back, Harding; half backs, Porter and Harding; full back, Sears.

University—Rushers, Wagenhurst, Sypher, Meirs, Bowser, Cash, Audenreid and Ziegler; quarter back, Church; half backs, Colladay and Hulme; full back, Hill.

The elevens were evenly matched and through most of the game the ball was held in the centre of the field. Conover and Graves, half backs of Trinity, made touch-downs for their side by brilliant runs, but the last one was secured just as time expired and no goal was kicked from it.

THE RING.

Philadelphia for Sullivan.

The experience of Jake Kilrain and Charley Mitchell at the Central Theatre, Philadelphia, on the evening of Monday, Nov. 19, was far from pleasant. When Stage Manager Fleming introduced Kilrain as the champion of the world on the Central stage the galleries hooted and hissed. The crowded gallery yelled "Sullivan! Sullivan!" Kilrain made a bow and retired. Mitchell was given an ovation when he appeared as Hercules, but when he posed as "that celebrated modern athlete, John L. Sullivan," the applause and the cheers of the crowd made the roof tremble. After the performance a crowd of more than a hundred men waited around the stage door until Kilrain and Mitchell came out. They immediately surrounded the pugilists, hooting and yelling and shouting "Sullivan!" Policeman Craig rushed to the rescue of the two men and kept back the crowd, but Kilrain was hustled and shoved, and his hat was knocked over his eyes.

Shoulder Hits.

Jake Kilrain will settle in Baltimore after next summer.

"Ginger" McCormick, for a purse of $100, knocked out Jack Splan in eleven rounds at Jersey City recently.

The receipts of the Dempsey-Donovan match was nearly $3,500, and of it Dempsey got 65 and Donovan 35 per cent.

Harry Bull, better known among sportsmen as Chippy Norton, who was the stakeholder in the match between Sullivan and Mitchell, was married Oct. 27, in Birmingham, Eng., to a lady residing in that place. The occasion was celebrated by a spread at the Queen's Hotel, at which about forty guests sat down.

The annual boxing tournament of the Scottish American Athletic Club will be held at the Pavonia Rink, Jersey City, on Monday evening, Dec. 17, for the championship of New Jersey and New York, at the following weights:—105lb, 115lb, 135lb, 158lb; also a 135lb wrestling match. A handsome gold medal to the winner of each event. Open to all amateurs.

Jack Dempsey started for the Adriondacks last Monday afternoon to be gone a month. Before leaving he said:—"I intend to work while I am away, and when I return I shall be in something like condition. I was in poor fix when I met Donovan, but I have no one but myself to blame for that." He also added that he would fight Mitchell for $5,000 and would bet $10,000 that he can whip the Englishman.

Four, Four Years More.

From the New York Sun.

New York seems decidedly partial to presidential elections. In 1884, four years ago, the Metropolitan Club brought to this city the championship of the American Association and this year, four years later, the New York Club won the League championship and the championship of the world. Our club will be able to make a strong fight for the flag next season, but many think it will be four years more before this city will again be honored with the League championship.

SPORTING NOTES

Leo Monheimer and Peter Thienes, who are conceded the swiftest compositors in Chicago, have arranged a type-setting contest for $250 and the championship, which will take place in a few days. Thienes' public record is 1,800 ems solid nonpareil per hour, while Leo Monheimer's is 1,700 solid minion. The men will set for seven hours, three and one-half hours each at a stretch.

Here's a novel thing in the betting way which appeared in the last edition of the London Sporting Life: —"A gentleman of Clerkenwell offers to match White, of Leather Lane, against the Sauce man to eat half a brick, one pound of tallow candles, two new quartern loaves, one penny-worth of snuff and drink a quart of old ale. The lot to be consumed inside fifty minutes, for any sum."

SPALDING'S.

Our Boxing Glove Manufacturing Department, in the hands of a thoroughly capable glove maker, who is also an experienced Boxer, is the largest and best equipped factory of its kind in the world. With this factory at our command it is possible for us to carry at both our Chicago and New York stores more styles and a more complete stock than you can find in any sporting goods store anywhere. Anywhere is a large word, but we mean every word we say. To begin with, we carry every style of glove from the cheapest boy's size at $1.25 per set to the best grade at $7.50. $5.00 is the popular price for a set of gloves. Hitherto only a really second rate set has been given for this price. This year we have made up our minds to make a specialty of a fine glove at this figure, to make an enormous quantity of them and then trust to the good sense of our customers to buy them in large quantities, we did so and called it our "London Prize" Glove, No. 50. It is all made of white kid, except the palms which are of best tanned leather. It is scientifically padded and is exactly the glove that sparring teachers should have, and any one else who wishes a perfect glove at only a reasonable price. We also call attention to the "Slugger," No. 75, a 4oz. glove, and the No. 75A, a 2oz. glove, either style at $6.00 per set.

We already have a large portion of the boxing glove trade of the country, but we want more. We want a monopoly of it, in fact, but a monopoly that shall exist only by reason of the best goods and the lowest prices.

Our Gymnasium catalogue which contains descriptions and prices of not only gloves but everything in the line of first-class Gymnasium goods, is mailed free. Address either store.
