Annual Banquet of This Flourishing Organization.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 1.—The annual dinner of the Cincinnati Gun Club was held at the Stag Cafe on January 26, with about 100 members present. The meeting was presided over by Robert H. West.

After the dinner several papers were read. The speakers and subjects were: "Is Practice at the Trap Healthful as in the Field?" by J. E. Worth.

"The Probability of the Sixteen-Gauge Gun Becoming the Standard at the Trap," M. F. Lindsley.

"Various Methods of Throwing Targets," Arthur Gambell.

"Desirable Methods of Existing Game Laws," F. C. Tuttle.

A musical entertainment during the evening was greatly enjoyed, Walter Grier's clear-box, one-string instrument being the hit of the evening.

The first honor proposed by the toastmaster, Colonel R. H. West, was a toast to the two absent members, who were unable to be present through illness. Hon. T. A. Logan (Ackley) and Hon. J. B. Mosby (Jay Bee). A telegram from M. E. A. Donnelly, who is recruiting his health at Interlachen, Fla., expressing his regrets at not being able to attend, and wishing all a good time, was read, after which all drank to his health. The evening was enjoyed by all, and Mr. H. M. Norris, the chairman, was congratulated for his success in arranging the affair.

Trap at Paterson.

Paterson, N. J., Feb. 1.—Members of the Northside Rod and Gun Club extended their unlimited hospitality to the Jackson Park Gun Club Saturday afternoon, and their club house on the little knoll just across the Passaic River, at Riverside, was crowded to its utmost capacity with local devotees of the traps.

Frank Butler, the crack shot, who represents the Union Metallic Cartridge Company at all big shooting events, was on hand, and his presence lent an air of professionalism to the occasion. Butler, by the way, was the star performer of the day.

Several prizes were shot for, open to members of the two clubs, and the sport was greatly enjoyed. The Jackson Park Gun Club intends reviving trap shooting at targets. The scores follow:
