Winchester Factory Loaded Shells

AGAIN WIN THE

GRAND AMERICAN HANDICAP

THE

Preliminary Handicap and Other Honors.

R. R. Barber, an amateur from Paullina, Iowa, won the big event at Indianapolis from a field of 335 of the best shots in America with a score of 99 out of 100, and the preliminary with a score of 98 out of 100. In the Consolation Handicap he scored 97 out of 100, and he also made a run of 157 straight. Mr. Barber's scores of 99, 98 and 97 establish a New World's Record for the three handicap events. This new Togo of the shooting world; W. R. Crosby, who won the first professional average with a score of 298 out of 300; Fred Gilbert, who won second professional average with a score of 295 out of 300; and the winner of the high amateur average all shot Winchester Factory Loaded Shells, the reliable, the uniform, the winning kind—the only kind to shoot.

Analostan Gun Club.

Washington, D. C., July 5.—The Analostan Gun Club held an all-day shoot on their grounds near this city on the Fourth of July. The morning hours were taken up with practice events. The afternoon was given up to sweepstake shooting. The programme consisted of eight events comprising 140 targets. Some of the members complained that the targets were easy, but the scores, especially of the veterans at the game, do not bear out the assertion. Mr. J. B. Brown won high average for the day and John Coleman and Miles Taylor tied for second average. Following are the scores:

Targets	15	20	15	20	15	20	15	20	Shot	Bk.

The Saturday afternoon shoot, regardless of rain and wind, brought out a large delegation of shooters to Arlington, and there was some lively work between sunshines. President Bassell had a great eye and broke a straight score four times, ten twice, fifteen once and twenty-five straight. Any new shooter can by comparing Mr. Bassell's scores of two months ago with his score today find that there is a splendid chance for improvement with a little practice. The scores:
