

WINCHESTER

MODEL 1890 .22 CALIBER REPEATING RIFLE

This rifle is just the gun to take along on an outing trip, or into the country for the summer, being well adapted for target practice or small game shooting. It is a take-down, and can be taken apart and put together in an instant, without any tools, and can be packed in a trunk or carried on a bicycle. This rifle is accurate, light and handy; and like all Winchester guns, it is made well and shoots well. It is made in .22 Short, .22 Long and .22 W. R. F. calibers. Winchester Smokeless Powder Cartridges, loaded with Winchester Greaseless Bullets, are made in these different calibers and give the best results in this rifle, besides being very clean to handle. All reputable dealers sell Winchester Guns and Winchester Cartridges.

The Derryfield Gun Club Hold a Very Successful Meet.

Manchester, N. H., July 28.—Editor "Sporting Life":—Saturday, July 22, was certainly a happy day for Mayor Reed, president of the Derryfield Gun Club, as the program which he and the Executive Committee of his club had arranged attracted some 35 shooters, with all of whom Mr. Reed has a personal acquaintance and among whom are some of the best amateur shooters of this section. The program as arranged called for 150 targets, 5 events of 10 and 5 of 20. The last five events to be for the Peters trophy and the championship of the State of New Hampshire, held by Mr. Carl Harrington, of the Derryfield Club, and for which 15 of the State's best shooters lined up, making on the whole higher scores than have ever been shot in this State in a contest of this kind. Mr. Harrington, of Manchester, had accepted the challenge of our good friend D. W. Hallam, of Dover, N. H., and as the scores of these gentlemen in previous matches averaged high, a good contest was looked for, with no one reckless enough to hazard a guess on whom would win.

It proved, however, that neither were in championship form, Mr. Harrington being so confined by pressure of business that he was unable to get the necessary amount of practice, while Mr. Hallam, the challenger, who, by the way, was shooting a new gun which pounded his cheek so badly as to put him out of the running and rendered it, very much to the regret of his friends, impossible for him to finish the program.

Elmer E. Reed, of the Derryfield Club, carried away the honors for the day by not only winning the Peters trophy and State championship on the excellent score of 94 out of his 100, but by winning the high gun money (a $5 gold piece) for high average of the day on 142 breaks out of 150 targets and finishing up with a percentage of 94.6. Following him closely was the other Mr. Reed, who broke 92 (shooting just a little better than he knew how), Mr. Bouton with 90, Mr. Goss and Mr. Perley with 89. Altogether eight out of the 15 shooters finished the contest with 80 and under to their credit. On behalf of Saunders & Co., of Boston, Elmer E. Reed was presented a fancy cigar cutter and Mr. Perley a pocket compass by B. F. Smith, the all-around sport and good fellow, of the Watertown Club.

"Climax," of Lowell; Hibbard, of Boston, and Wheeler, of Brunswick, Me., the last named a representative of Peters Cartridge Co., while not eligible to the cup match shot a professional race all through the day. The special prizes for second and third high average for the day were captured by Messrs. "Climax" and Hibbard, respectively.

The shooting opened promptly at 10.30 o'clock under the most favorable weather conditions and with the exception of an hour at noon, when Capt. Geo. Bartlett, of the Peters Cartridge Co., gave an exhibition of fancy shooting with the rifle, was continued until 7 o'clock. This exhibition of Mr. Bartlett's is certainly marvelous and demonstrates that the modern rifle in the hands of such an expert as he, when used with the perfect ammunition he is using, is an instrument of marvelous accuracy. Small metal discs tossed in the air "by the human trap," Mr. Wheeler, were perforated as neatly as if bored by machinery, and squares of quarter inch steel plate were perforated as nicely as a paper would have been, all these targets being thrown in the air when shot at. By the use of mirrors for sighting Captain Bartlett hit his targets holding the rifle "bottom up" or any other way, he standing back to the object shot at, too. It is not in the reach of the ordinary man's imagination to formulate it; it must be seen to be appreciated. His exhibition was witnessed by about 400 spectators who were generous in their applause.

Charles J. Darrab officiated as scorer, Bert Davis, of the Manchester Hardware Co. as secretary and treasurer and Mayor Reed as squad hustler and succeeded in running off the program and exhibition in good time. The Derryfield Gun Club has obligated themselves to their friends, and rest assured they will be pleased to reciprocate when opportunity presents itself. The scores follow:

TRAP IN IOWA.

Harry Taylor Won the First Prize Offered to Amateurs.

Clarksville, Ia., July 28.—Editor "Sporting Life":—A two days' shoot was given by the Clarksville Gun Club which had a number of crack amateurs in attendance. The entry list was not what the liberal program was entitled to, but everything was carried out in a pleasant manner. High amateur average was won by Harry Taylor, of Mechling, S. D., who pocketed $15 for his good work. W. S. Hoon, of Jewell, was second. Fred Gilbert led the professionals with 385 out of 400. C. W. Budd was second with 378.

The trade was represented by Adams, Lord, Vietmeyer, Gilbert, Budd, Gottlieb and Whitney. The office was in charge of Fred Whitney, and he paid the winners promptly after the events closed.

A number of the shooters left here for the two days' shoot at Fort Dodge.

The scores follow:

East End Gun Club.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 26.—The new East End Gun Club held its initial shoot at the Dupont trophy on Saturday. Threatening weather cut down the attendance as well as the scores.

The trophy contests will continue every Saturday afternoon until October 15 and will be conducted on the sliding handicap system, which gives the poor shot an equal chance with the expert.

In addition to the handicap event a number of sweepstakes were shot in which Fleming, Watson, Seely and Gumbert won the purses. The scores follow:

Shot Brk.	Shot Brk.
Fleming (18)	50	40	Sherrer (14)	50	22
