Race Most Auspiciously.

HARRISBURG AT WILLIAMSPORT APRIL 22.—The Tri-State champions opened their season by defeating their old-time rivals, Harrisburg, with the greatest ease. An automobile parade, headed by the Twelfth Regiment Band, took place at 1 o'clock and at 2:45 the players of the two teams, with the band, marched across the field to the flag pole and raised Old Glory and the championship flag. Plater pitched a fine game, both of Harrisburg's runs being due to errors.
Smith was batted out of the box in the sixth inning, and gave way to Brennan, who was also hit hard. Cockill hit to the flagstaff for a home run, with two on bases.

GAMES PLAYED THURSDAY, APRIL 23.

TRENTON AT WILMINGTON APRIL 23.—The Peaches took the lead in the first inning, but by a combination of timely hits and good luck Trenton filled the bases; Murray swatted out a home run, giving the New Jersey team the lead. At this point Clunn, who had been doing excellent work until that time, was removed and Peterson, one of Connie Mack's men, stepped in the box, and the scoring for the visitors after that time was done.
