GAMES PLAYED MONDAY, MAY 4.

BOSTON AT PHILADELPHIA MAY 4.—Boston outhit and outfielded the Athletics, but Mack's men had luck when men were on bases and they won their third straight game from Boston. Young was hit for three singles in the first and eighth innings, but in the six others he retired the Athletics in order. This was his first defeat. Score:

GAMES PLAYED WEDNESDAY, MAY 6.

NEW YORK AT BOSTON MAY 6.—The game was played in a freezing northeaster, which made both players and spectators shiver. Cicotte prevented the visitors from scoring, although they had plenty of opportunity, while the Bostons were handy with the willow at the right time. Newton did the twirling for New York, but he allowed his opponents to bunch all but one of their hits in the fifth and sixth innings, when they scored their runs. Clark Griffith sat in the pavilion and viewed the proceedings with an expression of disgust written upon his countenance. Score:

NEW YORK AT BOSTON MAY 9.—New York defeated Boston again by a margin of one run. The run was due to a muff by Lou Criger of a perfect throw by Carlisle to catch Ball, who was making for the plate on a hit to left field. Had Criger held the ball the runner would have been out by ten feet. Boston outhit the Highlanders, but they were unable to do the swatting when it counted. Score:

ST. LOUIS AT CHICAGO MAY 9.—(P. M. and P. M.)—The first three men to face Smith in the first game hit safely and Hoffman scored. Owen went in and did fine work, while Howell held the White Sox safe until the eighth. With two out in this inning and Tannehill on second, Sullivan hit into left field and tied the score. With one gone in the ninth Williams hit for two bases; Wallace was passed, Ferris popped out and T. Jones' single brought in the winning run. Score:
