

WINCHESTER

REPEATING SHOTGUNS

SELECTED FOR USE IN THE U. S. ARMY

The U. S. Army authorities know a gun. That is why, when they recently decided to equip some troops with repeating shotguns, they selected the Winchester in preference to all other makes. The experts of the U. S. Ordnance Board also know a gun. That's why, after submitting a Winchester Repeating Shotgun to a series of severe tests, they pronounced it safe, sure, strong and simple. If you want a shotgun, buy the one whose strength and reliability led the U. S. Army to select it and the U. S. Ordnance Board to endorse it—that's the Winchester.

OSSINING'S FINE TURNOUT.

Club's Sixth Annual President's Shoot Attracts 33 Shooters.

By C. G. Blandford.

Ossining, N. Y., January 8.—The sixth annual President's Shoot, held on New Year's Day, was largely attended. Perfect weather conditions prevailed and every one was happy. Col. Brandreth, the president of the Ossining Gun Club for the sixth time, gathered together as fine a bunch of prizes as one is likely to see outside of a New York State shoot. The value of the prizes reached into hundreds of dollars—a most bewildering assortment of silverware and other articles valued by sportsmen. Everyone who shot got a prize, and the cashier, C. D. Swain, Jr., also "Seed" Auser, the referee, he of the big voice, came in for one, and there were four left for the Lincoln's Day shoot. All were members but the following guests of Col. Brandreth: Robert B. Lawrence, John Philip Sousa, Frederick Johnson, J. S. Fanning and John Le Boutillier, of New York City; Justus Von Lengerke, of Orange, N. J.; A. L. Burns, Mamaroneck, and William H. Hyland, of Croton Lake. Jack Fanning came from Boston to attend the shoot and he wasn't sorry he made the trip. Some of the members who shot Saturday made their initial effort at target smashing and they concluded that the game was not as easy as it looked. The secretary would like to voice the great appreciation of the club for the most bountiful generosity of Col. Brandreth for these annual shoots and the resultant good times they afford, but his notes are censored. W. D. Smith was the star performer of the day, getting first prize, though his net score, 42, was tied by Amos Bedell. Scores are arranged in the order that the prizes were drawn. The handicaps were misses-as-breaks. Scores:

Kennett Gun Club's Opening.

Kennett Square, Pa., January 8.—The Kennett Gun Club held its opening shoot on January 1. A sharp north wind sweeping across the hill caused low scores to prevail during the shoot. Mr. Linn Worthington, the Winchester star, outshot the field of shooters, which was small on account of the recent blizzard. Mr. Lloyd Lewis, the crack du Pont shot, was also in the front ranks.

The program consisted of six 20-target events.

HUDSON CLUB'S SHOOT.

Schortey Captured Main Event at Jersey City With 82 per Cent. Mark.

By Thomas H. Kelley.

Jersey City, N. J., January 8.—Appended are the scores of the members of the Hudson Gun Club, at the regular bi-monthly shoot held January 1. The day was pleasant and almost ideal for trapshooting, but the snow on the ground seemed to bother some, as no very high scores were made, a 22 by Schortey being high. In the 100-bird club race Schortey was the winner with 82 per cent., and John Pape was the runner-up, finishing six points behind. We shoot again two weeks from today, on January 16, and everybody is welcome to come and help us make the day a noisy and pleasant one. Hot lunch served gratis as usual to everybody. Scores:
