

WINCHESTER Shotguns and Shells

Win the Eastern Amateur Championship

H. W. BUCKWALTER, Eastern Champion.

Mr. H. W. Buckwalter, of Royersford, Penna., shooting a Winchester Repeating Shotgun and Winchester "Leader" Shells, outshot a big field of crack amateurs and won the Eastern Amateur Championship at the recent tournament of the Keystone Shooting League of Philadelphia.

OTHER NOTABLE WINNINGS

Shooting "Leader" shells, Wm. Wolstencroft won the Maryland Handicap at the "Amateur Shoot" at Baltimore, scoring 92 targets from the 20-yard mark. High amateur for the shoot was Chas. Mink, shooting a Winchester gun and "Leaders." Wm. Weidebusch, Wm. M. Foord and G. N. Hoover were tied for second amateur average, while J. W. Ewing was third. All shot "Leader" shells and Mr. Hoover and Mr. Ewing also shot Winchester guns.

To win these events required skill and good guns and shells. The merit of Winchester shotguns and shells is established. They are the ones that in 1909 hung up the highest record ever made.

JUST TWO WORDS

NECESSITATE INTERPRETATION OF GAME LAWS.

Pennsylvania's Superior Court Asked to Define What Is Meant by the Expression "Summary Conviction" in the Code.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 26.—The Superior Court was recently asked to pass upon the meaning of the term "summary conviction," in the law operating in cases of violations of the game and fish laws. The appeal is the first to be made to a higher court upon a point raised in a law which has been invoked in hundreds of cases and in every county in the State in the last few years. The appeal was made by the Commonwealth from the decision of Judge James W. Shull, of the Perry County courts. C. A. Spotts, a resident of that county, was arrested last year on the charge of violating the law regulating fish boxes. The information was made by J. W. Crisswell, chief fish warden, and the Magistrate dismissed the case. The Commonwealth sought an appeal to the Quarter Sessions Court, but it was denied by Judge Shull, who held that the term "summary conviction" meant a conviction. The State claimed that the words were simply a term for a legal proceeding and not necessarily a conviction.

Fleming Star at South End.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 26.—Not much in the way of prizes was left after Bob Fleming wound up in the merchandise shoot of the South End Gun Club, at Camden, N. J., on March 19, but the other contestants got grim satisfaction from the fact that he came too late to enter the first event. When Fleming left the Camden grounds he had enough stuff to stock a gents' furnishing store, and then some. But he won everything by virtue of some of the best shooting ever seen on the South End grounds, smashing 13 in his first string and then breaking straight in the four subsequent events. Each event was at 15 targets and from two to five prizes were hung up in each, and in every one Fleming carried off something. Hinehine, William Pechman and Muller shot in their best form, and Holloway, after making a poor start, wound up by breaking 15 straight. Scores:

Clearview Shooters Busy.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 26.—A big field participated in the Clearview Gun Club's monthly event, which was shot over the club's traps, at Seventy-first and Brewster avenue, on March 19. The University of Pennsylvania Gun Club was invited to the shoot and the Varsity men helped to give the Clearviewers a good race for the leading honors, Dixon being the high man of the day, with 24 breaks. In Class A, Bilhartz was the high man with 25 breaks. Evans led the B men with 22 smashes, while Edwards was the best shot in the C squad, with 20. The February tie existing between Binsall and Evans was shot off, the latter winning by 20 to 18. Scores:

CANADIAN TRAP HONORS.

Individual Championship of the Eastern Section Changes Hands.

By N. W. Shannon.

Montreal, Can., March 25.—The Westmont Shield, representing the individual trapshooting championship of Eastern Canada, was lost on March 22 by Mr. W. Carruthers, the holder, who won it recently. The latest match for it resulted in a victory for Mr. Hutchison, the challenger, with a score of 84 to Mr. Carruthers' 81. Two challenges are already in for the shield, one from Mr. Ewing, and another from Mr. Carruthers. The silver spoon in the last shoot was won by Dr. Wilson from 20 yards. The winner in the president's prize, Class A, was Dr. Wilson; in Class B, T. C. Cooke, and in Class C, H. C. Strachan. The following were the day's scores, 100 targets in the first and 50 targets in the seventh, and in the other events, 25:

Smithfield Beats Logan Team.

Logan, Utah, March 22.—A team of local marksmen went to Smithfield, March 19, and shot off a match with the gun club of that place. Twenty-five targets per man were used, and the Smithfield shots came out winners by a good margin, the score being 168 to 139 in their favor. The local men were entirely without practice, and as they are quite confident that with a little practice they can defeat the Smithfield men, a return match is practically assured. It is more than likely that the shoot will result in the formation of a gun club here. The score follows:

Laureate's Weekly Shoot.

Troy, N. Y., March 24.—The regular weekly shoot of the Laureate Boat Club was held March 19, at the club grounds. A strong South wind drove the targets in every direction, making it very difficult for the shooters to locate targets. Mr. Dangerfield, from Albany, paid us a visit and captured high gun honors. He scored 101 out of 125 targets. Hurd, also from Albany, was second, with 87 out of 100. Mr. J. A. Norton, secretary of the Hudson Valley Gun Club, Glens Falls, was also a guest of the club and scored 48 breaks out of 75 targets. We are all ready for our tournament for April 1 and 2. Scores:

At the Indianapolis Traps.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 26.—With the exception of slight winds, ideal weather prevailed at the Saturday afternoon Indianapolis Gun Club's shoot, on March 19. Good shooting was the result. Hymer made high average, with 90 and a fraction. Martin was a close second, with an average of an even 90. In the Membership Trophy trials, Hauger led with 44 broken targets out of a possible 50. Scores:

PALEFACES DEFEAT HARVARD.

Clubmen Win Easily Under Very Unfavorable Shooting Conditions.

Wellington, Mass., March 26.—The Paleface team defeated the Harvard trapshooters' team on March 19 at a five-man team match held over the Paleface traps, by 41 targets. The final score was: Palefaces 448, Harvard, 407. The match was under rather unfavorable weather conditions, a stiff East wind blowing across the marshes and made the targets veer sharply to the West. The scores under the conditions, were very good. Charles Marden, of Salem, was high gun in the team match, breaking 96 out of 100 targets. Dr. Gleason, the former U. S. amateur champion, was second high in the match, with 94 "kills" to his credit. Hawthaway, of Harvard, shouldered high gun for the Crimson representatives, with 87 to his credit. Besides the team match, a 100-target event was also held, in which Marden led with 96. The summary:

Tie in Boston A. A. Shoot.

Boston, Mass., March 26.—In the weekly 100-bird handicap shoot of the B. A. A. Gun Club, at Riverside, on March 19, F. H. Richards and R. A. Faye tied at 93. Faye was scratch man, while Richards had a handicap of 22. In the shoot-off at 25 birds, Richards won. The weather conditions were poor, a strong wind blowing straight in the faces of the shooters.
