WINCHESTER

REPEATING SHOTGUNS

FOR WILD FOWL SHOOTING.

Wild fowl shooters know a gun. To fulfill their exacting requirements a gun must be reliable, safe and a strong accurate shooter. It must always produce results. Winchester Repeating Shotguns are generally used by this class of sportsmen, because they meet every demand made upon them. They stand rough, hard usage. They don't jam, catch or fail to extract and can be relied upon to shoot strong and work well under the most trying conditions. If you want the best repeating shotgun on the market, buy a Winchester.

SCHRECK HIGH SECOND DAY.

The shoot ended with a much larger attendance than on the first day. John E. Schreck, of West Covington, won the coveted trophy and title of State champion, in competition with some of the best shots in the State, after shooting off a tie with George Walker, of Fort Thomas. His score, including the shoot-off, was 28 out of 30, to Walker's 26. The weather conditions were very good, though the sun shining on the snow, which covered the ground, made a dazzling light rather trying on the eyes. J. S. Day, of Texas; O. J. Holaday and C. O. LeCompte, of Eminence, Ky., the last two professionals, tied on 24, but were barred from winning, and Schreck and Walker were left to fight it out, with the result stated above. In this event all stood at 30 yards, entrance $16.25, purse divided 30, 25, 20 and 15 per cent. class shooting. F. P. Bedford, the winner of the Kentucky Handicap, scored 22 in this match, tieing with G. Dameron, J. Q. Ward, P. Nicholas and J. G. Denny. The first miss-and-out was won by T. H. Clay, of Paris, on a score of 10 out of 11. In the next miss-and-out the shooters started at 30 yards and went back one yard after each shot. NOTES.

In event No. 1 at 50 singles, Bills was high with 44, while Stannard followed close on his heels with 43.

After shooting the 20 pairs Bills and Stannard shot five extra pairs, Bills breaking his 10 straight, while Stannard let three get away.

In the next event at 25 singles Panesi took a brace and showed the way by breaking 23, Dunham getting 21, while Fraunholtz hung up a score of 20.

Miller was high amateur with 40 from the 18-yard mark, Shrigley breaking 38 from the same handicap, and Gerhardt landed 38 from 16 yards.

In event No. 2 at 20 pairs Stannard landed first honors with 27, Bills getting 24, Riley coming in for third place with 20. Crocker and Fetherston tied with 17, while Seelig brought down 16.

The weather was clear and cold, with a stiff, sharp wind from the Northwest, which not only caused uncertain flights of the targets, but it numbed the fingers of the marksmen at the traps and consequently the scores were not very high.

Twenty-three shooters for a cold day was a fairly good turnout and was quite a contrast to Saturday, when there was nothing doing. No doubt many of the shooters thought that the snow storm of Friday night had snowed us under, but we were all ready for business and waiting for you, the traps all cleaned of snow, and a good fire in the club house; so don't let the snow scare you out again, boys.
