Mark Arie knows guns and knows trap-shooting requirements. He made the 1913 season's high amateur average (broke 96.17% of 1650 registered targets). After thorough study, Mr. Arie recently selected the Marlin hammerless as the best practical trap gun obtainable.

He bought a No. 28 D Marlin trap gun—gave it its first try-out at the big 6-day shoot at Houston last week—the above winnings testify to his good judgment.

"A wise man profits by the experience of others"—you will buy a Marlin sooner or later—why not enjoy its benefits now?

H. H. Shannon, of New York, won the 6th Annual Amateur Championship of Long Island Sound on Jan. 17th—high over all—"beating the best metropolitan gunners of the year." He used a No. 28 T Marlin trap gun.

We furnish specially built trap guns, 26 to 32-inch ribbed or matted barrels, buttstock to specifications, 15 days after receipt of order, if necessary. Regular grades shipped immediately.

CONTESTS AT YOUGHIOGHENY

Blizzard Weather Keeps Down Scores of Weekly Events.

McKeesport, Pa., February 9.—Saturday afternoon, February 7, proved another blizzard afternoon, making trap shooting very difficult at the Youghiogheny Country Club, almost a gale blowing across the traps from left to right, and it was some time before the shooters caught on to the drift of their shot, and even then with the puffy wind, high scores were almost impossible. Some of the shooters were early on the ground, and practice events resulted as follows:

EVENTS		W. A. CORNELIUS.
Events	Score	Events	Score
W. A. Cornelius	6 8 7 0 11	J. W. Wilson	16 15 12 14 20
J. W. Wilson	16 15 12 14 20	Dr. Aber	6 8 17

On account of the extreme cold, it was decided to divide the regular 50-target shoot into two 15-target events and one 20-target event. In this contest J. W. Wilson tied Dr. Aber for high score, each getting 35 out of a possible 50. Dr. Heisey following closely with 34. It was decided to shoot off the tie with a 10-target contest. Dr. Aber won with nine out of 10. J. W. Wilson getting eight out of 10. Details of this 50-target shoot were as follows:
