

ADVANCE NOTICE AND CALL FOR PAPERS
SPORTING TRADITIONS CONFERENCE V
ADELAIDE

Wed-Fri, 14-16 August 1985

The theme of this fifth biennial conference will be
THE CHANGING SIGNIFICANCE OF SPORT

Papers are invited for the following sub-themes:

- i) Cricket and Society
- ii) Issues in Contemporary Sport
- iii) The Bradman Era: Sport in the 1930s
- iv) Sports Nationalism
- v) Professional/Elite Sportspersons
- vi) Sport and the Community
- vii) Sport and Special Populations
- viii) Sport and the Economy
- ix) Sports History Methodology
- x) Yesterday's Heroes
- xi) The Teaching of Sports History
- xii) Technology and Sport
- xiii) Sports Violence, Misconduct and Indiscipline
- xiv) Sport and the Media

If you are interested in presenting a paper please contact:

Dr. Wray Vamplew, Economic History Discipline,
The Flinders University of South Australia, Bedford Park, 5042
(Ph: 08.275-2394)

In addition to sessions constituted from the sub-themes, there will be an opening address by an international sports historian, a conference dinner, a public lecture, the official launching of the Australian Society for Sports History, and a social programme including a delegates' participatory sport.

The main venues will be Adelaide Oval and the State Convention Centre, both centrally located.

If you wish to know more about the Conference please contact:
Chris Harte, GPO Box 696, Adelaide, 5001
(Ph: 08.228-3211 work, 08.267-5418 home)