

BOOK NOTES

Ian Brayshaw, Caught Marsh, Bowled Lillee. ABC, Sydney, 1983. Illus., stats. pp. 128. $4.95.

Ian Brayshaw brings to this book the same industriousness, balance and integrity which characterised his batting and bowling and is a feature of his commentary. Although a friend of both Marsh and Lillee, Brayshaw is sufficiently independent of mind to criticise them (albeit mildly) at some points. Brayshaw is no stylist, and his writing is understated at times, but all his opinions are well informed.
