

THE SPORTING TRADITIONS STUDENT ESSAY PRIZE 1985

This prize is awarded for quality essays in the general field of sports culture. Appropriate areas of focus are: sport and economics, sport in history, law, literature, philosophy, politics, social psychology, and sociology. Sports culture and tradition should be seen as being broad, not confined.

Entrants must be registered students at a tertiary or secondary educational institution in Australia and essays for the 1985 competition must be written in either 1984 or 1985. The length should be between 2,000 and 5,000 words, with the latter the strict maximum. Essays should be of a standard suitable for publication, without further revision, in this or comparable journals. Essays may be written specially for the competition or be revised versions of papers written to satisfy course requirements. They should be typed, in double spacing, on one side of the paper only. Two copies should be sent to: Dr. Wray Vamplew, The Editor, Sporting Traditions, Economic History Discipline, The Flinders University of South Australia, Bedford Park, South Australia, 5042.

The closing date for the 1985 competition is 1 December 1985. The winning essay may be published in Sporting Traditions.

The prize is $100 in cash and a one year subscription to Sporting Traditions. Other prizes may be awarded at the discretion of the judging panel.
