

NOTES ON THE CONTRIBUTORS

BARRY ANDREWS is a Senior Lecturer in the Department of English at the University of N.S.W. at Duntroon. A creditable club cricketer but less successful punter, he has participated enthusiastically in several Sporting Traditions Conferences. Recently he co-authored The Oxford Companion to Australian Literature.

JOHN DEANE is a Senior Tutor in the Faculty of Teacher Education at the Toorak Campus of Victoria College. He is the Victorian correspondent for the Sporting Traditions Bulletin.

VIRGINIA O'FARRELL is a postgraduate history student at La Trobe University, Victoria. She completed her History Honours in 1982 with a thesis entitled Open Tennis: The Australian Debate c1955-c1975. She is now writing a postgraduate thesis on Victorian Tennis c1878-c1939, which will be completed in 1986.

ROBERT PADDICK is a Senior Lecturer in the School of Education at the Flinders University of South Australia. He coordinates the Physical Education programme. He has published in the philosophy of sport and leisure and is currently interested in the area of rules and ethics in games.

BOB STEWART is a former Melbourne club footballer and C.A.E. lecturer who has written on the economics and finances of Australian sport. He is a frequent contributor to ABC and 3RRR radio, and is the author of a recently published book The Australian Football Business.