

EDITORIAL PREFACE

Thank you for your support over the past three years. If A.S.S.H. was a racehorse then now might be the time to consider being put to stud, but we have better things in mind and prefer to continue our progress down the track. By the time you read this the A.S.S.H. executive will have discussed several possible innovations which we hope to announce to you later in the year. We have already produced the inaugural numbers of the A.S.S.H. Studies in Sports History which focus on the themes of colonialism and nationalism. For further details see the advertisement later in this issue. We hope you will continue to support us with your subscriptions and contributions, both of which are equally welcome.
