CALL FOR PAPERS

The Australian Society for Sports History will hold its Tenth Biennial Conference at The University of Queensland from 26 - 30 June 1995. Those interested in participating should contact Dr John Nauright, Program Co-ordinator or Dr Ian Jobling Conference Director at The University of Queensland, Brisbane 4072. The fax number is (07) 365 6877 and the committee can be reached on E-Mail at johnn@hms01.hms.uq.oz.au.

Special features of the Tenth Conference will include a session reflecting on the past, present and future of ASSH and Sports History; sessions on the links between sport history and sport sociology; invited speakers; and tours of the Southern Queensland area. Contributions are invited to special theme sessions listed below. None of these suggestions are intended to discourage proposals of other papers and/or sessions which will also be welcome.

Special Themes:

Links between Sport History and Sport Sociology

Sport and the Creation of Gendered Identities

Women in Sport

Comparative Perspectives in Sports History

Race and Ethnicity in Sport

The Political Economy of Sport

Theory and Practice in Sports History

Sport and the Media

Olympic Themes

Those interested in presenting papers should notify the organisers by 30 June 1994. Abstracts will be due by 30 November 1994 and copies of papers to session commentators will be due by 15 May 1995. Sessions will run 90 minutes with 3 papers of 20 minutes each, 10 minutes for commentary and 20 minutes for discussion.

The conference committee wishes to extend a warm invitation to visit Brisbane for the Conference. The average temperatures in June range from lows or around 8° - 10°C to highs of 21° - 25°C
