

Sporting Traditions X Conference Update

26 - 30 June 1995

The Australian Society for Sports History will hold the Tenth Biennial Sporting Traditions Conference at The University of Queensland from 26 - 30 June 1995. Those interested in participating should contact=

Associate Professor Ian Jobling, Conference Director,

E-mail: IANJ@MSO1.HMS.UQ.OZ.AU or

Dr John Nauright, Program Coordinator,

E-mail: JOHN@HMSO1.HMS.UQ.OZ.AU,

Department of Human Movement Studies,

The University of Queensland, 4072, Fax Number (07) 365 6877.

INVITED SPEAKERS:

Professor Roberta Park, University of California, Berkeley

Dr Joseph Maguire, Loughborough University

Professor Steven Riess, North Eastern Illinois University, Chicago

Special features of the conference will include a session reflecting on the past, present and future of ASSH and sports history; sessions on the links between sport history and sport sociology; invited speakers; and tours of the southern Queensland area including a beach BBQ. Contributions are invited to special theme sessions as listed, but papers in other areas are also very welcome.

Papers offered thus far from all Australian states, New Zealand, South Africa, England, Canada, India and the USA.

SPECIALTHEMES:

Links Between Sport History and Sport Sociology

Sport in the Making of Identities

Women in Sport

Comparative Perspectives in Sports History

Race & Ethnicity in Sport

The Political Economy of Sport

Theory and Practice in Sports History

Issues of Olympism and the Olympic Games

Reflections on 10 Sporting Traditions Conferences

Abstracts due before 31 January 1995 and copies of papers to session commentators will be due by 15 May 1995. Sessions will run 90 minutes with three papers of 20 minutes each, 10 minutes for commentary and 20 minutes for discussion.