

ASSH SPORTING TRADITIONS X CONFERENCE
THE UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND
JUNE 26-30 1995

Enclosed with this journal are registration forms and additional information about the conference program, accommodation and travel for the Sporting Traditions X Conference

Special sessions and celebrations have been organised for the Tenth Sporting Traditions Conference and we are pleased to state that the following overseas speakers especially invited to join us are: Dr Joe Maguire from Loughborough University of Technology; Professor Steven Riess from Northeastern Illinois University; and Professor Roberta Park from the University of California at Berkeley who will give the Inaugural Reet Howell Memorial Address.

The following is a tentative program, including theme sessions, meetings and discussion gatherings.

Monday June 26

ASSH Executive Meeting 11.00am - 2.00pm

Registration from 3.00pm leading into the Evening Opening Session: Making

Sporting Traditions: Reflections on the Development of Sports History

ASSH President's Welcome and Reception

Tuesday June 17

Invited Address: Dr Joe Maguire, "Common Ground? Links Between Sports History and Sports Sociology"

Theme Sessions:

Gender, Class, Race and Commodification in the Social Construction of Bodies
Studies in Cricket History

Theoretical Approaches to Sports History

The Changing Face of South African Sport

International Olympic History

Biography and Sport

Evening Free: City and SouthBank

Wednesday June 28 Theme Sessions:

Sport and Gendered Boundaries

Traditions and Sport in Shaping Identities

Sport in Australia After World War Two

The Media and Sport

Physical Education, Physical Activity and Society

Australasia and the Olympic Games leading into a Cocktail Session: 'Australia at the Olympic Games' including Harry Gordon with John McCoy interviewing past and present Australian Olympians

Thursday June 29

Breakfast at the Customs House for the Reet Howell Memorial Address by

Professor Roberta Park, University of California at Berkeley 'Persons in Body - Persons in Law: Women, Sports and Being Human, 1660-1993'

Delegates will then travel by coach to the Sunshine Coast to visit special presentations depicting physical activity and sport at the Movie Museum and Electric Theatre and the Kenilworth Heritage Collection

After a scenic tour of the hinterland of the Sunshine Coast we spend the afternoon at Mooloolaba participating in swimming, surfing, beach volleyball, walking and, of course, the traditional ASSH Football Match; all this culminates in a Beach Barbecue.

Friday June 30

Invited Address: Professor Steven Riess, Northeastern Illinois University 'Politics and American Turf, 1866-1895

Theme Sessions:

Globalisation, Commodification and Sport

Ethnicity and Sport

Uncovering the Australian Sporting Past

Transformation in Australian Rules Football

Preserving Our Past

The Concluding Session will be a Roundtable: The Present State and Future of Sports History

ASSH BUSINESS MEETING

Friday Evening: Sporting Traditions X Conference Dinner and ASSH Quiz with Quizmaster Richard Cashman followed by the singalong with J Neville Turner on the grand piano

For further information contact the Conference Director Dr Ian Jobling (IanJ@hms01.hms.uq.oz.au) or Programme Coordinator Dr John Nauright (JohnN@hms01.hms.uq.oz.au)

Sporting Traditions X Conference

C/- CPASE

Department of Human Movement Studies

The University of Queensland

QUEENSLAND AUSTRALIA 4072

FAX: 61 7 365 6877