The first issue of the Occasional Papers in Football Studies will be published in late 1997. The journal seeks to publish innovative articles and research notes on the history, geography, sociology, politics, economics or cultural studies of any footballcode. Most articles will be accompanied by a published commentary with authors given right of reply. The journal hopes to stimulate debate and promote the advancement of research on football. All articles will be fully refereed by two reviewers.

Two copies of papers to be considered for publication as articles should be sent to Dr John Nauright, Department of Human Movement Studies, The University of Queensland, Brisbane, Qld, 4072, Australia. E-mail: johnn@hms01.hms.uq.edu.au; fax: 61-7-33656677. Papers should be referenced in Harvard format or the endnote format used in Sporting Traditions, should not normally exceed 8000 words including notes and have a separate title page with author details. Research notes of 2000-3500 words will also be considered for publication. Two copies should be sent to Dr Murray Phillips, Centre for Sports Studies, University of Canberra, Belconnen, ACT 2616, Australia. E-mail: phillips@science.canberra.edu.au. Research in progress, reports of research at various institutions and comments on important issues in football studies should be sent to Dr Tara Magdalinski, Arts Program, Sunshine Coast University College, Maroochydore South, Qld 4558, Australia.
